- Risks associated with economic conditions, including risks associated with foreign currency fluctuations;
- Rapid technological changes;
- Demand for our products;
- Introduction of competing products;
- Our ability to respond to rapid technological changes with new products and services;
- The return on investment from research & development investments;
- Our ability to protect and enforce our intellectual property, and risks of potential claims of intellectual property infringement by third parties;
- Failure to manage our product and service lifecycles;
- Failure to manage open-source software adoption and compliance risks;
- We derive revenues from certain customers. Five of our customers comprise 63% of our revenues for the period from January 1, 2019 to September 30, 2019;
- The ability of our products to operate effectively with those of our customers; and
- General industry and regulation trends which may change from time to time and could adversely impact our business;

With respect to the forward-looking statements contained herein, although the Company believes that the expectations and assumptions are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on the forward-looking statements, because no assurance can be given that they will prove to be correct. There can be no assurance that the anticipated results or developments will actually be realized, and actual results can be expected to vary from the results projected and such variances may be material and adverse. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. All forward-looking statements contained in this MD&A are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement.

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Zoomd, the Company’s wholly-owned operating subsidiary, was incorporated on November 29, 2012 and began operating in 2013. The Company has developed a proprietary patented technology for leveraging internet onsite search for increased monetization and engagement for publishers, and better management of digital advertising focusing on mobile app user acquisition for media agencies and advertisers. The Company has global operations and provides services to top tier brands such as Poker Stars, Shein, 90Min, Alibaba and Bwin.

On May 28, 2019, Zoomd, Dataminers Capital Corp. (“Dataminers”) and Dotima 2019 Ltd. (“Subco”), a wholly-owned Israeli subsidiary of Dataminers, entered into an agreement and plan of merger (the “Business Combination Agreement”) pursuant to which Dataminers and Zoomd agreed to effect the combination of their respective businesses and assets by way of a "three-cornered amalgamation" which upon completion, would result in a reverse takeover of Dataminers by the shareholders of Zoomd (the "Transaction"). The Transaction, which was completed on August 28, 2019, constituted Dataminers' "Qualifying Transaction" under Policy 2.4 of the TSX Venture Exchange (the "TSXV"). Pursuant to the terms of the Business Combination Agreement, Dataminers acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of Zoomd by way of an amalgamation between Zoomd and Subco, with the amalgamated entity becoming a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of the Dataminers.

Concurrently with the Qualifying Transaction, Zoomd raised approximately CDN$9.3 million (approximately US$7 million) pursuant to a private placement (the "Concurrent Financing") by issuing 8,385,990 subscription receipts and 880,000 common shares of Zoomd FinanceCo Ltd. each of which, upon completion of the Qualifying Transaction, was exchanged for one common share of Dataminers.

Upon the completion of the Qualifying Transaction, Dataminers issued an aggregate amount of 90,921,209 common shares to the shareholders of Zoomd (including those holding common shares of Zoomd FinanceCo Ltd. as a result of the Concurrent Financing) in exchange for all of the issued and outstanding shares of Zoomd.

On September 3, 2019, the common shares of Dataminers began trading on TSXV under the new name "Zoomd Technologies Ltd." with the ticker symbol ZOMD after having raised CDN$9,265,990. The Company intends to use the funds to accelerate growth by further investing in our product offering, sales and marketing and acquisitions.

Prior to the consummation of the Transaction Zoomd was required to make a share split on a 1:9.674629454 adjustment basis to its share capital (the "Ratio"), so that immediately prior to the closing of the Transaction (i) Zoomd issued to each of its shareholders, with respect to each ordinary share of Zoomd held, an additional 8.674629454 ordinary shares (rounded to the nearest whole number) (keeping the ratio of 1:9.674629454); and (ii) the number of ordinary shares or rights convertible into, exercisable or exchangeable into, or entitling the holder thereof to receive directly or indirectly, additional ordinary shares of Zoomd under any option or warrant to purchase ordinary shares currently outstanding or otherwise granted by Zoomd (the "Outstanding Options") was adjusted as per the Ratio so that each one ordinary share issuable under such Outstanding Option shall be increased by and additional amount of 8.674629454 ordinary shares (rounded to the nearest whole number).

In connection with the Qualifying Transaction, the agents of the brokered portion of the Concurrent Financing received 458,080 broker warrants (each, a "Broker Warrant"). Each Broker Warrant is exercisable to acquire one common share of the Company at CDN$1.00 per share until August 20, 2021. In addition, certain finders received 265,000 finders' options on identical terms as the Broker Warrants.

Financial Operations Overview
Financial Period ended September 30, 2019

Revenue

The Company generates revenues mostly from two different models:
(i) Advertisers that are based on the Company-installed search engine at the Publisher's site. When an end-customer is using the Company's engine, the Company generates revenue from the Advertisers, with whom it has a contracted budget that is based on appearances, and split the revenues with the Publishers, and 60% - 70% of the revenues collected are passed through to the Publisher. Revenues are recognized gross with amounts paid to the Publishers presented in cost of sales, and
(ii) Advertisers are based on actual key performance indicators (KPI's) achieved, mostly cost per impression (CPI) or cost per engagement (CPE) or a fixed percent by using traffic sources as the Publishers, ad networks and demand side platforms (DSPs). At the end of each month, the Advertiser's revenues are calculated and recognized, taking into consideration the contractual cap with such Advertisers.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales are comprised mainly from costs paid to the Publisher or traffic source, for delivering the acquired results given by the Advertisers, or with whom the Company shares the revenues it collects from the Advertisers.

Operating Cost and Expenses

The Company's operating costs and expenses are classified into two categories: research and development expenses and selling, general and administrative expenses. For each category, the largest component is personnel costs, which consists of salaries, employee benefits and share-based compensation. Operating costs and expenses also include allocated overhead costs for depreciation of equipment. Operating costs and expenses are generally recognized as incurred. Operating costs also include amortization of intangible assets acquired in the business combination which have a more than insignificant effect on the operating margins.

The Company expects personnel costs to continue to increase as we hire new employees to continue to grow our business.

Research and Development Expenses, Net

Research and development activities are central to the Company's business. The Company expects to continue its research and development operations in order to complete the development roadmap. The Company's research and development expenses consist primarily of salaries and other related costs, including share-based compensation expenses, payment to subcontractors and cloud infrastructure.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

The Company's selling, general and administrative expenses consist primarily of salaries and other related costs, including share-based compensation expenses, for persons serving as our executive, finance, legal, human resources and administrative personnel, professional service fees and other general corporate expenses, such as communication and office expenses. The Company expects that its selling, general and administrative expenses will increase in the future, The Company targets global expansion with partners and setting up local operations in specific regions. It incurs additional general and administrative costs associated with being a public company. These public company-related expense increases will likely include costs of additional subsidiaries on the globe, legal fees, accounting and audit fees, directors' and officers' liability insurance premiums and costs related to investor relations.

Finance Income and Finance Expenses

The Company's finance income and finance expenses consist primarily of the change in fair value of our convertible loans that are carried at fair value and serves as the main source of liquidity of the Company and changes in provision for royalties to the IIA – Israel Innovation Authority. The Company expects that finance expenses associated with its convertible loan to decrease significantly as the loans are expected to be converted with the consummation of the transaction.

Foreign currency transactions are translated into United States dollars using the exchange rates prevailing as at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are re-measured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognized in the statement of comprehensive loss to "finance expenses" and "finance income".

Financial Instruments and Risk Factors

The Company operates in a highly competitive industry and its results of operations, business prospectus and financial condition are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties and are affected by a number of factors outside the control of management of the Company. The risks and uncertainties include those disclosed in the Company's filing statement dated June 30, 2019 and filed on SEDAR as well as the following risks and uncertainties.

Foreign currency risk:

The Company's functional currency is the United States dollar. The Company's exposure to the fluctuations occurring in the rates of exchange between the United States dollar and the New Israeli Shekel ("NIS") result mainly from salaries and related expenses that are stated in NIS. The Company acts to reduce the currency risk by means of holding its liquid resources in short-term deposits (NIS and USD). During the period, no change took place in the exposure to currency risk or in the manner in which the Company manages and measures the risk.

Management of credit risk:

Before receiving a new customer and during the period, the Company conducts research on the financial strength of the customer, and also requests the customer to provide credit references from other suppliers with whom the customer maintains business relations. In addition, the Company purchased a credit insurance policy for most of its customers. Moreover, the Company holds cash and cash equivalents in various financial institutions. Pursuant to the Company's policies, evaluations of the relative financial stability of the different financial institutions are performed on an on-going basis.

Liquidity and fair value risk:

Careful management of liquidity risk requires a sufficient cash balance to support operating activities. Management constantly analyzes cash balances, which are comprised of cash and cash equivalents and assets at fair value through profit and loss. This analysis is based on forecasted cash flows, in accordance with the policies and restrictions set by the Company. The Company keeps a sufficient level of cash and cash equivalents, by taking into account the cash required for its operating activities, in order to reduce the liquidity risk which, the Company is exposed to.

Critical Accounting Estimates

Significant Accounting Judgements and Key Sources of Estimation are summarized in Note 3 to the Company annual audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2018 and have not changed during the following interim period, except for the adoption of IFRS 9 and IFRS 15 that were adopted as of January 1, 2018. The adoption of these standards had no material effect on the results of operations of the Company.

Statement of Compliance with IFRS

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRS as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB").

Recently adopted accounting pronouncements

IFRS 16, Leases ("IFRS 16") was issued by the IASB in January 2016 and specifies how an IFRS reporter will recognize, measure, present and disclose leases. The standard provides a single lessee accounting model, requiring lessees to recognize assets and liabilities for all leases unless the lease term is 12 months or less or the underlying asset has a low value. Lessors continue to classify leases as operating or finance, with IFRS 16's approach to lessor accounting substantially unchanged from its predecessor, IAS 17. An entity applies IFRS 16 for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2019. Earlier application is permitted if IFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers has also been applied. A lessee shall either apply IFRS 16 with full retrospective effect or alternatively not restate comparative information but recognize the cumulative effect of initially applying IFRS 16 as an adjustment to opening equity at the date of initial application. At the transition date, the company had a lease of vehicles with a monthly lease 1$ as well as office rent that was ended on March 2019. At the transition of the standard, there was no significant effect on the Company's position and results of operations. During the second quarter of 2019, the Company entered into a new rent agreement for a period of four years with a monthly lease payments of 34$. The agreement was expanded in the third quarter by an additional monthly lease payment of $13 that will end on the same period. During the nine months ended September 30, 2019, the Company entered into a new vehicles lease agreement for a period of three years each, with a total monthly lease payment of 3.5$.
